

The Canadian Association for Population Therapeutics Conference:
Student Travel Bursary Application Guidelines (2023)

Purpose:

The CAPT Student Travel Award is offered to graduate or post-doctoral students. It is intended to defray the travel costs (entirely or in part) associated with making a scientific presentation as a first author or presenter at the CAPT Annual Conference.

Eligibility Criteria:

Graduate and post-doctoral students are eligible to apply if

- The student is currently enrolled full-time at a recognized institution, with priority given to students studying in Canada
- The student is the first author or presenter of a minimum of one abstract which was accepted for presentation at the CAPT Annual Conference

Students will be granted a travel bursary of a maximum of $1,500 for a total of $10,000.

Please note that eligibility and/or abstract acceptance does not guarantee receipt of an award.

Award:

Distance travelled one way (Km)	Previous Bursary	New Bursary
50-200	$100	$300
200-500	$200	$500
500-1000	$300	$800
>1000	$600	$1,500

Application material to be submitted:

To be considered for funding, a student must submit an application to the CAPT administration office:

Apply at <https://capt-actp.ca/>

Award Deadlines:

Applications will be accepted up until one week prior to the conference, or until all the funds are allocated.

Notification:

The student will receive an electronic letter with notification of the decision by

Provision of Award:

Travel bursary cheques will be issued at the conference in the recipients registration package